

PGC singer wins prestigious award!

The Peninsula Girls Chorus is delighted to announce that Through the Flowing River, a composition written by PGC singer Jane Lange, age 9, for our Brava choir, has won The ASCAP Foundation Morton Gould 2008 Young Composer Awards!

Established in 1979, with funding from the Jack and Amy Norworth Memorial Fund, The ASCAP Foundation Young Composer Awards program grants cash prizes to young Concert Music composers up to 30 years of age whose works are selected through a national juried competition. Of the thirty-two composers selected as the 2008 prize - winners, Jane was one of only two composers selected for this honor who is under the age of 10.

The 9th Annual ASCAP Concert Music Awards was held at the Times Center in New York City on May 22. The recording of Through The Flowing River was played (one minute excerpt) at the awards ceremony. Here is a brief recording of the event in YouTube:
